Prelude “Turn Your Eyes Upon Jesus”

Piano, Noah Husby

Welcome, Call to Worship and Opening Prayer

Opening Hymn “Grace Like Rain”

V1. Amazing grace how sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me I once was lost but now I'm found was blind but now I see so clearly

Chorus: Hallelujah grace like rain falls down on me, Hallelujah all my stains are washed away (They're washed away)

V2. 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear and grace my fears relieved how precious did that grace appear the hour I first believed

V3. When we've been there ten thousand years bright shining as the sun we've no less days to sing Your praise than when we'd first begun

Ending: Hallelujah yeah! Hallelujah yeah! Hallelujah yeah, oh yeah! Hallelujah all my stains are washed away, they're washed away

Prayer of Confession

Liturgist Sandie Enders

God of all provision, we live in a land of plenty. We fill our bellies to our contentment and then cram in a few more bites. Forgive us for hungering and thirsting after the wrong things. Give us a new heart that desires after your ways with great hunger and thirst.

(Please take time for silent personal confession)

Reflective Song “Restore to Me”

Verse: Hide Your face from my sins and cover my iniquities. Create in me a clean heart and renew a right spirit within me. Don't cast me away from Your presence. Don't take Your Spirit from me

Chorus: Restore to me the joy of Your salvation. Restore to me the wonders of Your love. Restore to me the joy of Your salvation. Restore to me, restore to me.

Bridge: Deliver me from this tower of darkness, through the pain and brokenness and I will sing of Your loving kindness and of Your righteousness.

Doxology

Prayer of Dedication

Scripture

“Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.” (Matthew 5:6)

A Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." (His disciples had gone to the city to buy food.) The Samaritan woman said to him, "How is it that you, a Jew, ask a drink of me, a woman of Samaria?" (Jews do not share things in common with Samaritans.) Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water." The woman said to him, "Sir, you have no bucket, and the well is deep. Where do you get that living water? Are you greater than our ancestor Jacob, who gave us the well, and with his sons and his flocks drank from it?" Jesus said to her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again, but those who drink of the water that I will give them will never be thirsty. The water that I will give will become in them a spring of water gushing up to eternal life." The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I may never be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water." (John 4:7-15)

Closing Hymn

"Victory in Jesus"

Chorus: O victory in Jesus, my Savior forever. He sought me and bought me with His redeeming blood. He loved me ere I knew Him and all my love is due Him. He plunged me to victory beneath the cleansing flood

V1. I heard an old old story how a Savior came from glory, how He gave His life on Calvary to save a wretch like me. I heard about His groaning of His precious blood's atoning, then I repented of my sins and won the victory

V.2 I heard about His healing, of His cleansing pow'r revealing how He made the lame to walk again and caused the blind to see and then I cried dear Jesus come and heal my broken spirit and somehow Jesus came and brought to me the victory

V3. I heard about a mansion He has built for me in glory and I heard about the streets of gold beyond the crystal sea about the angels singing and the old redemption story and some sweet day I'll sing up there the song of victory
